University Information:

Swinburne University of Technology is a large multi-sectoral and multi-campus institution with the mission of being a pre-eminent entrepreneurial university in the Asia-Pacific region, thriving on new ideas and knowledge and exploiting its intersectoral heritage to create value for its stakeholders. Swinburne has campuses in metropolitan Melbourne, at Hawthorn, Prahran, Lilydale, Wantirna, Croydon, and Healesville, and an overseas branch campus university in Kuching, the capital city of the state of Sarawak in Malaysia. It also offers an increasing number of programs via the Internet. Its programs cover the education and training needs of over 40,000 students ranging from apprentices to doctoral students. Swinburne is proud of its close links with industry, business, and community. It has acquired a prominent and respected place for itself in education in Australia.

The Sarawak Campus is a licensed branch campus university in Malaysia which offers selected undergraduate, postgraduate, and research degree programs identical to, or largely based on, those offered at other Swinburne campuses in Australia. It also offers pre-university foundation programs and diploma programs. The branch campus was established in 2000 and gained university status in Malaysia as Swinburne University of Technology (Sarawak Campus) in June 2004. The first stage of the branch campus occupies a 16.5 acre site in central Kuching. The Sarawak Campus has students from Malaysia and other countries, and plans to expand rapidly as its staff and facilities are developed continuously to allow a greater number and diversity courses to be offered.

The branch campus university in Sarawak is a joint venture between Swinburne University of Technology in Australia and the State Government of Sarawak through two of its Foundations: Yayasan Sarawak and the Sarawak Higher Education Foundation. The academic operations of the campus are integrated with the overall university-level processes established in Australia.

School of Business and Design:

The School of Business and Design (SoBD) currently offers a range of diploma, undergraduate, and postgraduate programs. It is in the process of expanding its offerings at various levels. Academic staff in the School are currently organised into the following discipline groups: Accounting & Finance, Design, Economics, HRM & Organisational Studies, International Business, Law, Marketing, and Strategy & Entrepreneurship. The School is developing rapidly as it strives to expand business and design education to cater for the human resource needs of the state of Sarawak and the region, offer internationally recognised education to students from overseas, and create opportunities for student movement between Swinburne campuses. The School also offers postgraduate research opportunities.

Participation in Committees:

The appointee will contribute to regular staff meetings, course and subject committees within the School, and make contributions to University management within the School as appointed or elected.

Reporting Relationships:

This positions' supervisor/manager	Head of School or any other person as nominated by the Pro Vice-Chancellor and Chief Executive.
Other positions reporting to this position	None

Location:

This position is located at the Sarawak Campus, Malaysia, but the successful applicant may be required to undertake duties at any of the University's campuses for limited periods.
