

Foundation Students

Applicable to students who have not yet enrolled in the MPW Units (Compulsory Subjects)

Please be informed that the MPW units are part of the Foundation Program and as such you must take the units during the Summer Semester, which is a 7-week course held from January 2011 to February 2011.

Students are only allowed to articulate to Degree if they have enrolled, attended classes regularly during the session and sat the exams. Appeal letters to articulate to Degree without completing the MPW units during the Summer Semester 2011 will NOT be entertained.
