MEOLISA Foundation, a charitable organisation, is actively involved in benevolent activities in Malaysia. It awards scholarships to deserving Malaysian students to pursue their studies at universities in Malaysia.

Eligibility

- The applicant must be a Malaysian citizen
- Priority will be given to applicants whose family monthly per capita income is not more than RM1,500

Award Value

The maximum award value shall not be more than the tuition fee of the degree or foundation course. The amount to be awarded shall be at the discretion of MEOLISA Foundation and shall be reviewed on a yearly basis.

Criteria

- The applicant must have good academic results for SPM and/or STPM. Diploma students from other institutions of higher learning must have a CGPA of 2.8 and above
- The applicant has received an offer of study by the University
- Priority shall be given to an applicant who shall be the first in the family to graduate with a bachelor's degree
- Recipients of the scholarship must maintain a CGPA of 2.8 and above throughout the course of study at the University to continue to be eligible for the scholarship
- A scholarship recipient shall return all monies received if he/she transfers overseas, withdraws or drops out from his/her program or fails to continue to be eligible for the scholarship without a good reason for such failure. Each case shall be reviewed and determined independently.

In addition to the financial standing and academic achievements of the applicant, the organisation will also take into consideration the following:

- Attributes which indicate that the applicant is likely to become an outstanding citizen
- Personal qualities and character, and the extent to which the applicant has demonstrated exceptional leadership qualities
- Participations and achievements in extra-curricular activities including sports and community services

It is compulsory for the recipient of the scholarship to join and complete a course at an outward bound school identified by the MEOLISA Foundation before the final year of his/her degree program. The fee for participation shall be sponsored by MEOLISA Foundation whereas the transportation cost to the outward bound school shall be borne by the individual scholarship recipients respectively.

Closing date

The closing date for application for the MEOLISA Foundation Scholarship is the third Monday after the commencement of the semester. Applicants may apply for the scholarship as soon they receive a Letter of Offer for enrolment from the University.
